About NLIU Bhopal

The National Law Institute University (NLIU) was established by Rashtriya Vidhi Sansthan Vishwavidyalaya Adhiniyam (Act No. 41 of 1997) of the Madhya Pradesh Legislature. NLIU is recognized by the University Grants Commission and the Bar Council of India. The university was established to fill the gap and to provide the most modern legal education through multidisciplinary teaching and training of newer skills needed for the profession. The University launched its first academic program in 1998 and teaching for the five-year B.A. LL.B. (Hons.) program commenced from 1st September 1998.

NLIU has been successful in offering a broad perspective and instilling scholastic and reflexive capabilities in its students, bearing in mind larger national and humanitarian goals. Over the years, NLIU has been designing and delivering programs with a view to enhance the ability and capacity of the students, members of the faculty, and other participants in avoiding and resolving problems under the framework of law.

Diary of Events from 1st January 2023 to 31st December 2023

Dear Readers,

In reflection of the past year, I'm thrilled to share a snapshot of our enriching academic journey. Notable highlights include the Silver Jubilee Celebrations, featuring a lecture by Hon'ble Mr. Justice Abhay Shreeniwas Oka, and the engaging Interactive Session on 'Communalism, Misinformation, and Social Media' as part of the Legal Aid Clinic's Project Pukaar. The academic year saw key events such as the 12th Convocation Ceremony, where Hon'ble Mr. Justice Sanjay Kishan Kaul and Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ravi Malimath graced us, celebrating the achievements of the graduating classes of 2016 and 2017. Our commitment to knowledge extended to specialized courses, like the 5th NLIU - Khaitan & Co. Certificate Course on Corporate Laws, featuring esteemed speakers such as Mr. Vineet Shingal, Mr. Ashish Razdan and from 4th to 5th February 2023. Techtonic 2022-23, the 2nd NLIU-CLT Technology and Law Fair, showcased our innovative spirit. Another noteworthy event was Hon'ble Mr. Justice C. T. Ravikumar's insightful lecture on Juvenile Delinquency on February 25, 2023.

Specialized areas were explored through events like the 2nd NLIU - IndusLaw Certificate Course on Capital Markets (25th to 26th March 2023) and the 8th NLIU-Trilegal Summit on Corporate and Commercial Laws in April 2023, reinforcing partnerships and fostering meaningful discussions. Our commitment to practical legal education was evident in the success of initiatives like the 2nd NLIU-LAC Workshop and Training Program, the 3rd NLIU-CAM International Negotiation Competition, and the 2nd NLIU - Saraf & Partners Certificate Course on Insolvency and Bankruptcy Laws.

Welcoming the Batch of 2023, the Orientation Programme on July 17, 2023, and the Library Orientation Session on July 18, 2023, set the stage for a new academic journey.

The academic year featured highlights like the launch of Volume 2 of the International Trade Law Journal (ITLJ) on July 21, 2023, and a workshop on "Navigating through Law School" by Mr. Aneesh Upadhyaya on

Prof. (Dr.) S. Surya Prakash, Vice Chancellor, NLIU Bhopal

September 4, 2023. Teachers' Day 2023 was celebrated with special events, acknowledging our esteemed faculty.

Initiatives to offer practical exposure included an educational excursion to the National Green Tribunal (NGT), Bhopal on October 6 and 7, 2023, covered by Dainik Bhaskar, providing first-hand insights into environmental laws and regulations.

In October 2023, the Trade Law Newsletter was launched, and a Lex Peritia Webinar Series on the Mediation Act was organized by the Cell for Law and Technology in collaboration with Binance Academy.

The academic year culminated with the Law & Economics Symposium 2023, held online from 7th to 8th December, featuring Chief Guest Prof. (Dr.) R. Venkata Rao and Guest of Honour Prof. (Dr.) Ranita Nagar, providing valuable perspectives on the intersection of law and economics.

Our commitment to cultural diversity and inclusion shone through events like the Cultural Extravaganza on September 2, 2023 and the successful NLIU-SBA Elections 2023-2024, held from August 21 to 24, 2023.

In the sports arena, the NLIU Sports Committee, in collaboration with Athena, organized the Community Games 2023, the 2nd Edition of the NLIU CUP, and Virudhaka XIII, showcasing unbridled enthusiasm and tireless dedication.

With this, the NLIU community extends its warm wishes for a Happy New Year, anticipating another year of excellence and growth.

Warm Welcome to our beloved Chief Minister of Madhya Pradesh

Dr. Mohan Yadav,
Chief Minister, Madhya Pradesh

The entire NLIU family extends our warmest welcome to Dr. Mohan Yadav, who has assumed the mantle of the Chief Minister of Madhya Pradesh. The oath ceremony, held on 13th December 2023, marks the commencement of a new chapter in the governance of our state.

NLIU Bhopal congratulates Dr. Yadav on this significant achievement and expresses its anticipation for the positive impact his leadership will bring to the state of Madhya Pradesh. As a premier educational institution, we look forward to collaborating with the new government under Dr. Yadav's guidance to contribute to the growth and development of our state.

The entire NLIU community once again extends its heartfelt congratulations and best wishes to Dr. Mohan Yadav. We are confident that his tenure will bring about prosperity, progress, and inclusive development for the people of Madhya Pradesh.

Gratitude and Acknowledgement

Hon'ble Shri Justice Sanjay Kishan Kaul,
*Judge, Supreme Court of India &
Visitor, National Law Institute University, Bhopal*

Dear Sir,

As you conclude your tenure as a distinguished Visitor at the National Law Institute University (NLIU) Bhopal, we wish to express our deepest gratitude for your unwavering support and invaluable contributions to our institution. From the time of your joining as a Judge at the Supreme Court of India on February 17, 2017, until December 25, 2023, your guidance and encouragement has played a pivotal role in shaping the growth and development of NLIU.

Your leadership has been instrumental in steering

NLIU through essential initiatives, reinforcing our commitment to excellence in legal education and research. Your profound influence and insightful contributions have left an indelible mark on our university. Your consistent support has been a beacon, inspiring both faculty and students alike.

As you embark on new endeavors, we extend our warmest wishes for continued success and fulfillment. Your legacy at NLIU will endure, and we are grateful for the privilege of having had you as a guiding force in our journey.

Gratitude and Acknowledgement

Shri Shivraj Singh Chauhan
Former Chief Minister, Madhya Pradesh

Your steadfast commitment and invaluable contributions during your tenure have left an indelible mark on our institution.

Your leadership has been a source of inspiration, guiding NLIU through progressive initiatives and fostering an environment of excellence. Your dedication to the cause of education and unwavering support for our endeavors have significantly contributed to the growth and success of the university.

As you embark on new journeys, we extend our heartfelt gratitude for your service and wish you continued success in all your future endeavors. The impact of your leadership will be remembered with deep respect and appreciation.

Thank you for your valuable contributions, and we hope that your path forward is filled with continued achievement and fulfillment.

Gratitude and Acknowledgement

Prof. (Dr.) V. Vijayakumar
*Former Vice-Chancellor,
National Law Institute University, Bhopal*

We extend heartfelt appreciation to Prof. (Dr.) V. Vijayakumar for his dedicated service as the Vice-Chancellor of the National Law Institute University, Bhopal (May 17, 2018 - May 31, 2023). Prof. Vijayakumar, also the President of the Consortium of National Law Universities, showcased exemplary leadership and commitment, significantly contributing to the academic and research endeavors.

His unwavering dedication and positive impact on the institution, handling diverse responsibilities, including administrative duties, were instrumental in leading the faculty and administrative teams to achieve the standard of competence, befitting an institution of eminence such as NLIU. Prof. Vijayakumar's commitment to excellence played a pivotal role in guiding everyone to work towards fulfilling the university's mission and fostering academic growth.

We express gratitude for his service, and wish him continued success in all future endeavors. A Farewell Function was organized on June 2, 2023, to celebrate Prof. Vijayakumar's contributions, drawing the participation of staff and faculty. The event was a poignant expression of admiration, extending best wishes and cherishing the camaraderie and fond memories.

Student Bar Association

The Student Bar Association (SBA) of the National Law Institute University came into existence on the 9th of November 2020, after the constitution of the NLIU Student Bar Association came into effect. The SBA was formed to find solutions to all the problems of the student body and act as a bridge between the administration and the student body. Since its formation, the SBA has been working hard to make a positive change in the University and to work on the core issues that concern the students.

Within a short span of its coming into existence, the SBA has endeavoured to bridge the gap between the administration and students. Apart from being just a representative body, the SBA has contributed to establishing a dialogue between the student community and the University Administration to find amicable and practical solutions to issues arising in the institution. The primary goal of the Association has been institutional welfare. Keeping this goal as the primary target has helped the SBA in bringing all stakeholders of the NLIU Family to common forums for contributing towards the growth of the institution.

Interactive Session on ‘Communalism, Misinformation and Social Media’ under LAC’s Project Pukaar on 26th January 2023

As part of the Republic Day celebrations and to mark the release of the fourth ‘Project Pukaar’ Report, the NLIU-LAC in collaboration with the NLIU Cell for Law and Technology organized an interactive session on ‘Communalism, Misinformation, and Social Media’. The discussion was presided over by Mr. Hemendra Sharma, State Head (Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh Range), India Today, who contributed his invaluable time and expertise on the subject with attendees. Our alumnus Adv. Shantanoo Saxena also participated in the discussion and shared his insights. In addition, the findings of the Project Pukaar Report on ‘Communalism, Misinformation and Social Media’ were summarised and presented to the gathering by our student-member Mr. Akshay Ashok.

Quiz and Turn Coat Competitions on Constitutional Law on 26th January 2023

In honour of India’s 74th Republic Day, the National Law Institute University Legal Aid Clinic (NLIU-LAC) organized an engaging Quiz and Turncoat Debate Competition on Constitutional Law. This event aimed to foster a deeper understanding of the Indian Constitution, a document that serves as the foundation of India’s democracy.

Intra-NLIU Futsal Extravaganza : East Coast FC Triumphs in a Thrilling 4-Day Showdown

Intra-NLIU Futsal excitement unfolded with participation of 6 teams, each comprising up to 3 managers and 7 players, including a female participant. The league featured an intense mix of auctions, round-robin and knockout rounds, injecting the college life with friendly banter, vibrant energy and competitive spirit. The 4-day event (January 19-23, 2023) culminated with East Coast FC emerging as the winners. The champions were honored with Virudhaka goodies, trophies, medals, and cash prizes.

Pro-Bono Club's Inmate Outreach at Indore Central Jail : Advocating for Legal Aid and Prisoners' Rights

A team of the Pro-Bono Club of the National Law Institute University, Bhopal, visited the Indore Central Jail on 21 January 2023, distributing pamphlets and providing information about legal aid services to inmates. The visit aimed to raise awareness about prisoners' rights and available resources. Indore Central Jail, a maximum-security facility, houses a diverse inmate population including those awaiting trial, convicted individuals, and those appealing sentences, including death row prisoners. The team, welcomed by the prison officials, interacted with inmates, addressing their questions about legal aid services. Many inmates expressed gratitude for the information, while some highlighted challenges, such as the lack of updates on appeal statuses from their lawyers. The visit revealed that numerous prisoners face prolonged appeals without resolution, causing frustration. Some inmates lacked legal representation and sought assistance through letters, which the team assured to provide. The Pro-Bono Club emphasizes the need for timely updates and support to ensure justice for these individuals.

Community Games 2023: NLIU Sports Committee and Athena Foster Unity through Sports and Culture

In a spirit of celebration and unity, the NLIU Sports Committee and Athena organized the Community Games 2023 from January 21 to January 23, 2023. This 3-day event encompassed both cultural and sports activities, involving teaching staff, non-teaching staff, and their wards. The Community Games for teachers and staff included badminton, carrom, shot put, musical chairs, and more on January 23, 2023.

A special sports day was organized in the Kekaria Tribal School, Ratibad as an initiative supported by the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, NLIU.

Pro-Bono Club Outreach in Jabalpur : Empowering Communities through Legal Aid Awareness

The Pro-Bono Club team visited the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), Jabalpur on January 27, 2023 and met Shri Umashankar Agarwal, Member Secretary, who helped in organizing an awareness drive at the DLSA premises. Approximately 10-20 people were briefed on the free legal aid scheme, and contact details were shared for further queries. Female attendees were encouraged to spread awareness among their peers facing issues like domestic violence. Shri Umashankar Agarwal also assisted in pamphlet distribution, ensuring wide-reaching information dissemination. Thereafter, the team visited the Principal Bench of the Madhya Pradesh High Court in Jabalpur, informing the registry officials and advocates about the Pro-Bono Club Scheme's objectives. An alumni advocate, Mr. Sahil Sonkusale, supported the initiative and facilitated the team's access to the other advocates. The team plans to follow up with DLSA and advocates to extend legal support through the Pro-Bono Club Scheme. Team's collaboration with the officials and university administration at DNLU Jabalpur was cooperative and encouraging.

Empowering Inmates : Pro-Bono Club visited Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose Central Jail, Jabalpur

On January 28, 2023, teams from NLIU Bhopal's Pro-Bono Club, e-Nyayaganga, and Legal Aid Committee, DNLU Jabalpur, visited Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose Central Jail in Jabalpur. The purpose was to raise awareness about prisoners' rights and available legal aid services. The jail, which is a maximum-security facility, houses a diverse inmate population, including those awaiting trial, convicted individuals, and death row prisoners. The team, guided by the prison officials, distributed pamphlets and interacted with inmates, addressing queries about legal aid services. The visit included a tour of the prison complex, including a museum in the barracks where Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose was held. The prison officials briefed the team about the efforts to ensure fair trials and provide video call facilities for inmates to connect with lawyers and families. The team highlighted issues faced by inmates, such as pending appeals and lack of legal support. Despite challenges, the visit was successful in terms of reaching distressed inmates, with plans for continued support through the Pro-Bono Club Scheme.

Aavahan 2023: RMLNLU's 7th Edition Sports Extravaganza Celebrated Diversity and Triumphs, NLIU Clinched Best Contingent Award

Aavahan, signifying invocation, was the eagerly anticipated 7th edition of RMLNLU's inter-college sports extravaganza. Designed to unearth latent talent and provide a platform for participants and spectators alike, Aavahan represents the exclusivity of competitive fests. The 4-day event, held from February 2nd to 5th, 2023, witnessed over 20 colleges nationwide, including IITs, NLUs, and other prestigious institutions. NLIU's stellar performance, securing victories in Futsal (Women), Lawn Tennis (Women), and more, contributed to its recognition as the Best Contingent for the first time. The teams extended gratitude to the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Registrar, ADPS, and the entire NLIU fraternity for their invaluable support.

NLIU 12th Convocation : NLIU Celebrated the 12th Convocation Ceremony on February 11, 2023. Honoring the accomplishments of the graduating batches of 2021 and 2022, the ceremony featured esteemed guests, including Hon'ble Mr. Justice Sanjay Kishan Kaul, Professor of Public Administration at RCVP Noronha Academy of Administration and Management) and Ms. Meera Sinh (Director and Editor of Sameera Samvedna Samiti). Ms. Deepika Suri (Inspector General at Narmadapuram) also made her auspicious presence as a Special Guest at the Conference. The occasion was honoured by the esteemed presence of Prof. (Dr.) Raka Arya (Faculty in Charge, Gender Justice Cell).

Manthan's Insightful Journey : A Blend of Global Education and Local Governance

On February 21, 2023, Manthan organized a compelling guest lecture exploring the theme, “Changing Face of Career Choices - From Global Universities to Local Governance.” Speakers Mr. Pranav Pratap Singh, Vice President of Zila Panchayat, Rewa, and Ms. Kamna, Chairman of Zila Panchayat, Bhind, shared their inspiring journeys from prestigious institutions like the Oxford University to impact careers in local governance. Additionally, the Centre introduced a new initiative, ‘Manthan Monday,’ aimed to deliver weekly in-depth analyses on socio-legal and policy topics. Recent posts covered crucial subjects such as the EWS Quota, Digital Personal Data Protection Bill 2022, India’s G20 presidency, Raisina Dialogue, and the Centre’s stance on Same-Sex Marriages.

2nd NLIU-CLT Technology and Law Fair : Techtonic 2022-23

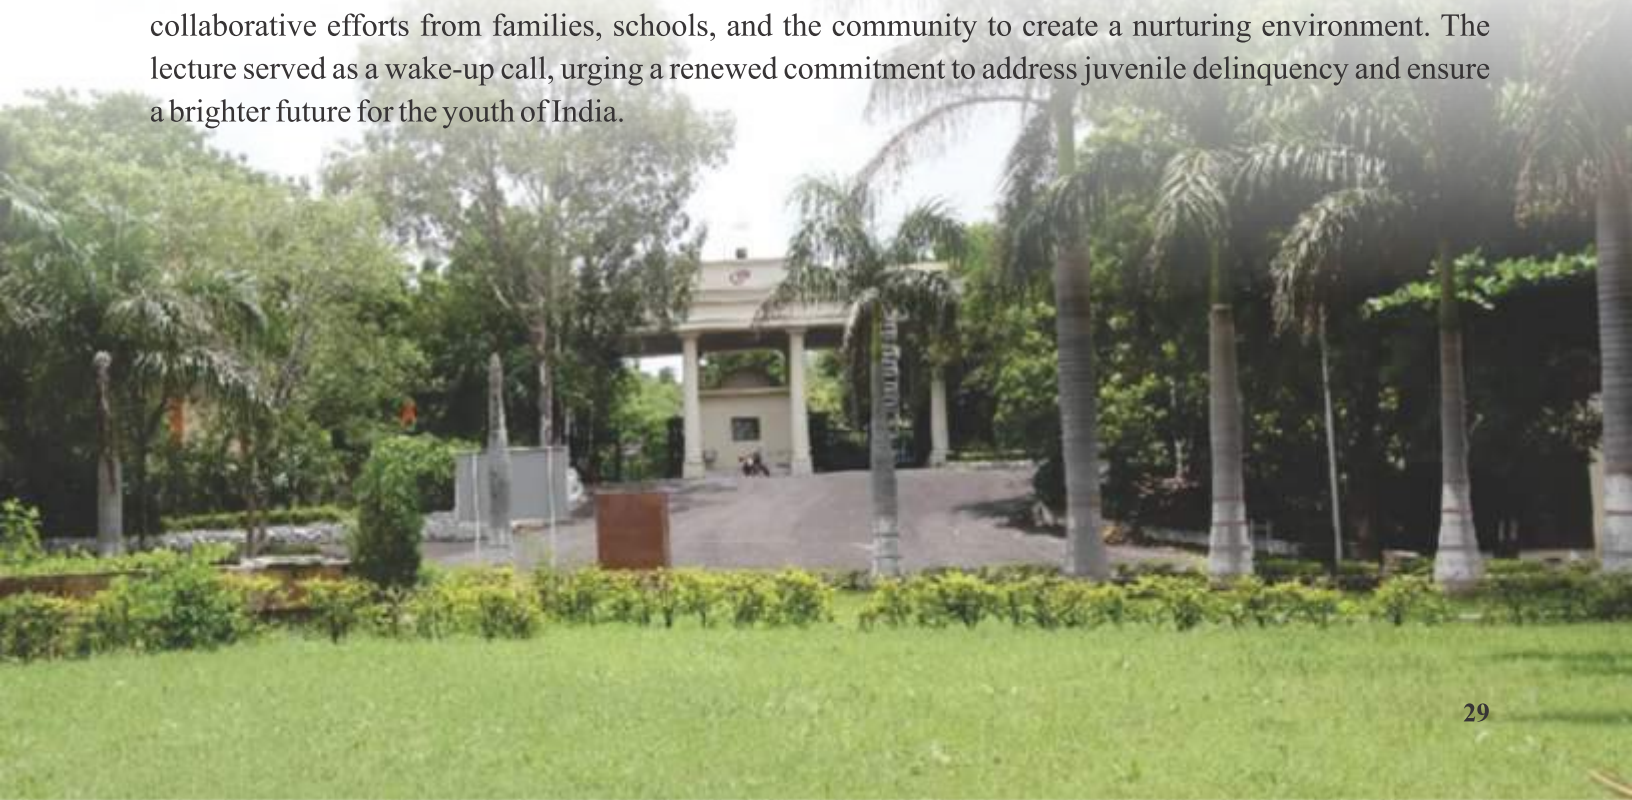

The NLIU-CLT Law and Technology Fair: Techtonic is a major flagship event organized by the NLIU Cell for Law and Technology annually. It provides a chance for aspiring lawyers to explore their talent as policy makers as well as gain insight into various technology law related issues, plans and solutions. This year, the preparations for the 2nd edition of NLIU-CLT Technology and Law Fair: Techtonic were kick-started with utmost vigour from July 2022 itself. Tectonic 2022-23 was organized from 24th -26th February 2023. Major highlights of the Event included the NLIU-Ikigai Policy Case Competition and NLIU-MeitY Round Table Conference.

Justice C. T. Ravikumar's Insightful Lecture on Juvenile Delinquency Sparked a Call to Action

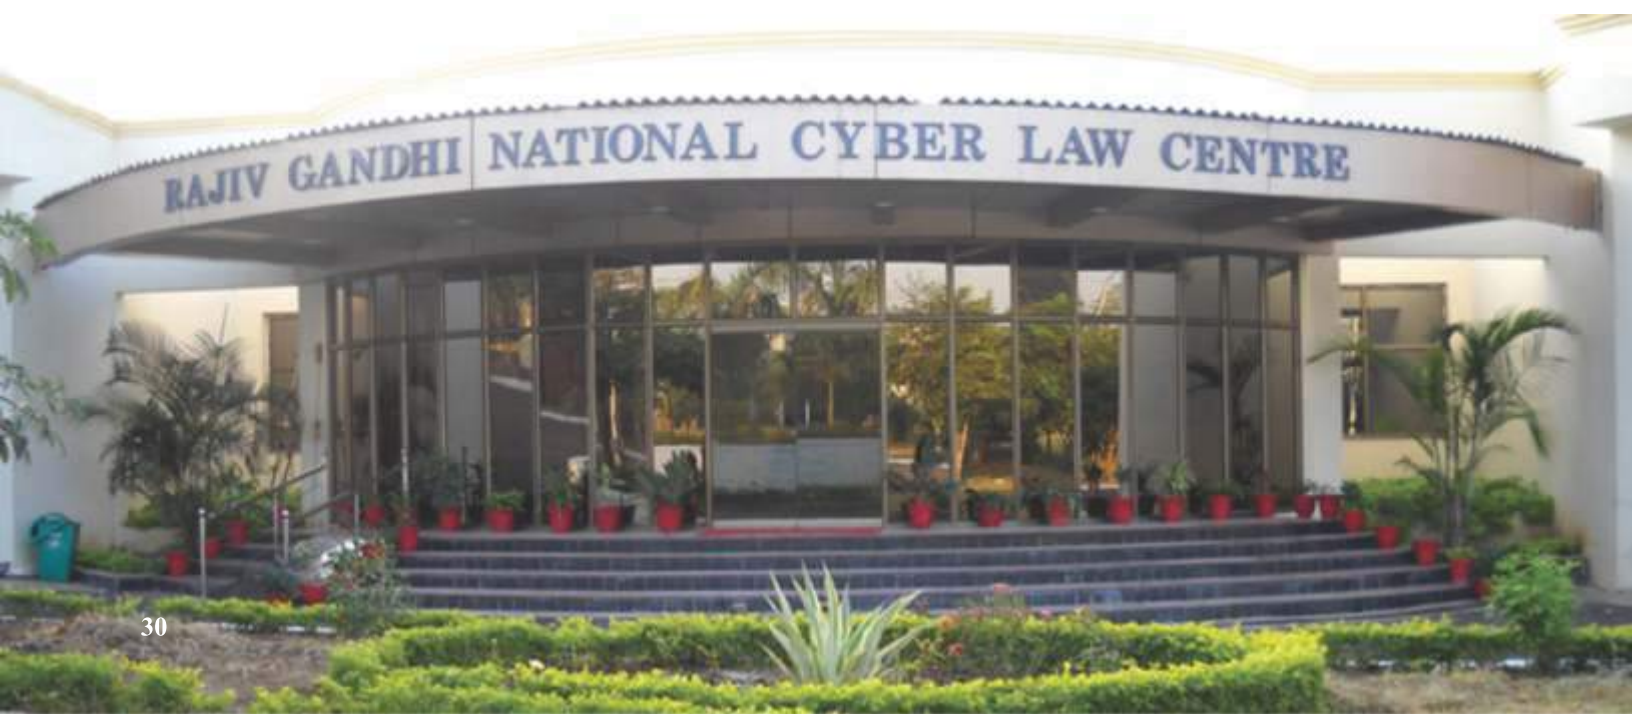

As part of the Silver Jubilee Celebrations, Hon'ble Mr. Justice C. T. Ravikumar, Judge, Supreme Court of India, delivered a compelling lecture on 'Juvenile Delinquency' on February 25, 2023. The lecture, informed by Justice Ravikumar's extensive legal experience, illuminated the escalating challenges of juvenile crimes in India. Emphasizing the need for urgent attention, he advocated for a holistic approach encompassing prevention, rehabilitation, and legal interventions. Stressing the importance of understanding the multifaceted factors contributing to juvenile delinquency, Justice Ravikumar called for collaborative efforts from families, schools, and the community to create a nurturing environment. The lecture served as a wake-up call, urging a renewed commitment to address juvenile delinquency and ensure a brighter future for the youth of India.

2nd NLIU – IndusLaw Certificate Course on Capital Markets organized by the Centre for Business & Commercial Laws on 25-26 March 2023

ENGAGEMENT WITH ALUMNI

NLIU Alumni Convergence : Seeking Guidance for Future Paths

In the year 2023, a distinguished assembly of NLIU, Bhopal alumni, which included notable figures such as Bishwajit Dubey, President of the NLIU Alumni Association, Mr. Monirul Islam, Judicial Magistrate in Tangail, Mr. Litan Chandra Roy, Judicial Magistrate in Kurigram, Mr. Md Hasan Al Azad, Judicial Magistrate in Pabna, Mr. Muhammad Omar Faruque, Assistant Secretary at the Law and Justice Division in Dhaka, and Mr. Amit Singh, Advocate, alongside Mr. Kanu Agarwal and other alumni, visited the university on various dates. Their purpose was to meet Hon'ble Prof. (Dr.) S. Surya Prakash, Vice Chancellor of NLIU, Bhopal, for paying rich tributes to the university and seeking his blessings and valuable guidance for their future endeavors. The meetings not only fostered a sense of unity and camaraderie among the alumni but also marked a unique sense moment of mentorship, reflecting the enduring connection between the university and its accomplished graduates.
