

Dr. Padma Singh
Course Co-ordinator

Assistant Professor in Business Law

Qualifications: Ph.D. in Law, LL. M. in Corporate Law, UGC NET-JRF

Teaching Experience: 10 Years

padma.singh@nliu.ac.in

Dr. Padma Singh joined NLIU, Bhopal in the year 2014. She has also been an Assistant Professor of Law at the Devi Ahilya Vishwavidyalaya, Indore (2013-2014). She has also worked as Associate Professor of Law at India International University of Legal Education and Research, Goa (2023-2024).

She was awarded Junior Research fellowship by University Grants Commission in the year 2010. Dr. Padma designed P.G. Diploma Course in Securities Law and Capital Markets at NLIU, Bhopal. Dr. Padma has delivered various invited lectures in different programs organized by National Law Universities, UGC- HRDC, Department of Ministry under Government of Madhya Pradesh, Regional Universities etc. and she has published many articles in various journals. Dr. Padma is Coordinator for Post Graduate Diploma in Securities Law. She is Senior Editor of The Indian Business Law Review. She has attended various seminar and conferences and also presented research papers. Dr. Padma's interests broadly lie in the area of Business and Law. Research Interests includes:

- Corporate Crime and Ethics
- Capital Markets and Securities Law
- Law of Carriage of Goods
- Corporate Law, Company Law
- Corporate Insolvency
- Law Relating to Partnership
- Sale of Goods
- Research and Publication Ethics
- Intellectual Property Law