

MoU with National Academy of Customs Indirect Taxes and Narcotics (NACIN), Faridabad

On 28th November 2019, the National Academy of Customs Indirect Taxes and Narcotics (NACIN), Faridabad, signed an MoU with the Rajiv Gandhi National Cyber Law Centre (RGNCLC), NLIU, Bhopal, for organising a customised accreditation two weeks' course for 45 IRS Officer-Trainees and 45 other in-service Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) officers, leading to the award of PG Diploma in 'Cyber Laws & Cyber Forensics'. For this, the Rajiv Gandhi National Cyber Law Centre (RGNCLC), NLIU, Bhopal, receive a fund of Rs. 21,00,000/- per annum, excluding infrastructure-related expenses. The Rajiv Gandhi National Cyber Law Centre (RGNCLC), NLIU, Bhopal, shall conduct PG Diploma in 'Cyber Laws & Cyber Forensics' at NACIN, Faridabad, once every year for five years, starting from 2020-21. The course will impart specialized skills to the Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) officers to enable them to identify relevant digital evidence in tax evasion cases, safely retrieve it, analyze it properly, and subsequently produce it in any formal quasi-judicial proceedings as well as in any court proceedings, in such a manner that its integrity is not compromised. Thus, tax officers can appreciate the contemporary challenges emerging in cyberspace, cyber law and cybersecurity.
